I'm a Creative Director of Motion with 16 years of experience leading and executing visual strategy for brands large and small. My stylistic approach is inspired by my roots in Design, Motion Graphics and Filmmaking. My professional and personal work has been viewed by millions on Youtube, televised nationally during the Super Bowl, and garnered a variety of awards.

My arsenal of technical skills include Live-Action Directing, Editing and Motion Design. They give me the firepower to effectively infuse vibrant energy and unwavering authenticity into any brand message. "More entertaining and less advertising" is the type of work that demands attention and delivers results.

Beyond results, I pride myself on being a kind person, hard working and born with the creative itch.
